

Mrs. Wise Celebrates 62nd Birthday

On Sunday October 5 a large crowd gathered at the lovely country home of Mrs. J. E. Wise to honor her on her 62nd birthday and her youngest granddaughter Nancy Clyde Wise, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wise on her second birthday. During the noon hour a beautiful dinner was spread in the front yard. In the center of the table was a two-tiered birthday cake with decorations in white, pink and green, and in the center of the cake were the inscribed words, "Happy Birthday, grandmother and Nancy."

Among those who attended the celebration were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wise and family of Westville, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Moody, Montgomery; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Moody and family, Ozark; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moody, Montgomery; Mr. Oils Brooks, Crestview, Fla.; Mrs. Alice Rogers, Bell, Wis.; Mr. M. S. Brunson and sons, Elba; Miss Kathleen O'Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Rennie Wise and children, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wise and child, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Donaldson and baby of Opp; Mr. and Mrs. ...

Veteran Can't Get Away From Planes

Montgomery — After 14 months, five hours and 20 minutes in the air, the Army Air Corps plane pilot cannot get away from planes. Because last week Brookley Field employee purchased the tail of a C-54 at the Mobile airport for $70 and it is in this hull of the surplus transport that Helms is making his home.

Stripped of its wings and just about everything else but its gigantic fuselage, this former carrier of airborne troops was hauled out in back of the wooded one mile east of Theodore, Ala., where the 22-year-old veteran has started reconditioning it into his living quarters.

"I've got a roof, walls, windows and a door to start with," Helms commented. "The rest may be tough to complete, but it will work out all right, the government shouldn't have any trouble making it all its surplus planes."

Mr. Oils Brooks, Crestview, Fla.; Mrs. Alice Rogers, Bell, Wis.; Mr. M. S. Brunson and sons, Elba; Miss Kathleen O'Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Rennie Wise and children, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Wise and child, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Donaldson and baby of Opp; Mr. and Mrs. ...

3-Minute Fiction

Lucy must have told Lucy some terrible lies about me because she acted scared to death of me at first. But she soon found out I wouldn't bite and we became good friends. That is, good as could be expected with John dialing me. She would run over sometimes when he wasn't home. When I went over there, I would take her to the hospital where she was being treated for her heart. I didn't want to let her go, but I didn't want her to die either. I had to take a plate of cookies with me so there would be something to eat when she came over. I had been taking care of Mrs. Arnold and before she died she told me she was leaving Lucy enough money so she would not have to work any more.

I didn't dare upset her by telling her John Greene would take over her home. I just said, "You mean if she dies—the money stops?" The Judge nodded vaguely. "John said, 'I'll never let her go,' but she's not his wife. You're fine, aren't you?"

Lucy lay back against the pillow, looking very wan. "I feel terrible," she faltered. "I'm so weak and tired."

"But that's because of the flu, isn't it, doctor?" John asked anxiously. "Tell her she'll be all right." I held my breath, then relaxed at the doctor's answer. "Your wife will need the utmost care in the future," Mr. Grahame, he said solemnly. "She must not do anything that will tire her under any consideration."

"I'll take care of her," John exclaimed. "Anything you want done, Honey, I'll tell me."

The doctor's face remained perfectly blank, but if the Judge had been a less dignified man, I would have declared he winked at me. I enjoy sitting watching John cut grass and do the chores Lucy had done so long. She insisted he make a garden and keep it. He fences her like a hen with very different understanding his attitude. He is afraid she might die and he would lose the hundred dollars a month. But he enjoys having him wait on her.

Sometimes I wonder what he would pay if he knew Mrs. Arnold had left Lucy the money in a lump sum. I don't believe he would appreciate the interpretation we gave the will.

Blount County tomatoes, tabbed by one northern buyer as the best produced in the U. S., are bringing an average money than last year's crop, even though the crop volume is somewhat off this year. The 1946 crop volume was put at 40,000 bushels, and the 1947 yield is only one-third of that or approximately 15,000 bushels, but this year's crop will bring Blount County farmers an estimated $300,000. The present price advance to farmers is $4 a bushel, but several cooperative system managers predict the advance to climb to a high of $7 per bushel by October 15.

A teacher had to be a man in the private schools of Alabama at the beginning of the 19th century. The second pre-requisite of the teacher, aside from being of the male species, was that he possess the physical ability to cope with the unruly spirits of the pioneer youth, but there are still many stories remaining which reveal how, on occasion, a "big boy" would thrash the teacher and run him out of the community.

When John A. Winston took office as Governor of Alabama in 1855, many private enterprises were attempting to extract appropriations from the state treasury for the development of railroads in Alabama. Gov. Winston, for whom Winston county was named, vetoed so many bills providing for state aid in railroad construction that he became known as the "Veto Governor."

Montgomery — Approximately 2,500 churches in Alabama are scheduled to hold their 1948 annual session of the State Baptist Convention in Mobile Nov. 11-13.

Because the convention president, Dr. Frank Trippe, recently moved to New Orleans to become director of the Southern Baptist Hospital there, Judge J. A. Carnley of Elba will preside over the assembly.

Pre-convention sessions of a state pastors' conference and the convention's executive committee are slated to be held Nov. 10.

During the three-day meeting, discussions will be held on the coordination of Howard and Judson colleges and of foreign home and state work.

Elba almost bettered Enterprise when on their own first play from scrimmage Ringsdorf took the ball on his own 40 and went all the way, only to have the officials rule that he stepped out of bounds on the Enterprise 45 yard line. From this point the Tigers failed to make a pun.

Enterprise scored again in the second quarter with Cuddy going for the six yard line. The attempt for extra point by wide and Enterprise led at the half by 12-0 score.

After taking the kick-off to start the second half, the Tigers made two first downs then were forced to punt. Wide fumbled the ball and Farris, Tiger half-back, punted on it on the Wildcat 2 yard line. After a play at center went for no gain, Ringsdorf cleared left end for the score. The try for extra point failed.

Two plays later after Elba had kicked to Enterprise, Cuddy broke through from the Enterprise 35 and went all the way to score.

Early in the fourth quarter the Wildcats got as far as the two yard line where the Tigers held Elba punted out to the 35 from where the "cats" marched back to the 5 but the Tiger half-back pointed out the defense strength. He is reported to have a broken bone in the foot and will be out for the remainder of the season. McCollough and Whitman were unable to play much of the game as the game was being out of control.

Neither is expected to be ready for the Florida game, but both will be in shape by next week-end and will play in the Hartford in Hartford Oct. 31.

Ringsdorf led the Elba ball carriers, playing one of his best games of the year. Rowell, McCollough and Whitman turned in good performances, as did McCollough until he was replaced because of injuries. Charles Whitman was the leading man on the Elba defense. He broke up many Enterprise plays before they had a chance to get underway. A newcomer, sub-center Grimes, showed much promise of developing into a superior line man.

The Tigers take on the Florida team here tonight. The two teams are about evenly matched according to past performances and the game is expected to draw a large crowd. The game is to be called at 7:30.

Other games this week were: Dothan 21 Stark 0, Geneva 18, Dothan 21 Stark 0, Geneva 18, Dothan 21 Stark 0, Geneva 18, Dothan 21 Stark 0, Geneva 18.

MAIL IN STORM SEWER
New York — Ellis Assmus, 52-year-old temporary postal clerk, admitted hiding two bundles of mail in a storm sewer because he couldn't make a five-hour block route in the specified one-hour time limit and was afraid of a reprimand. He was arrested and held under $500 bond on a Federal charge of secreting and destroying mail.

FESCU GRASSES
Farmers who like to try crops new to their sections might be interested in Kentucky 31 fescue and Alta fescue. Fescue grasses are hardy, heat and drought resistant, grow almost the year around, and furnish good grazing.

County Health officers, undertakers and funeral home operators have been advised of this regulation in order to prevent its violation by parents and others wishing to have a final look at their loved ones, he said.

Branchhead Statements

Governor Jim got another "going over" last week, with his view on foreign affairs bringing on the abuse this time. The Governor was quoted as making the following statement at a press conference a couple of weeks ago.

"If the Marshall Plan involves dumping money overseas like we have been doing, I'm against it. It's just like feeding pigs. As long as you feed 'em they're all right, but when you try to stop and wean 'em they squeal like hell and turn against you. It's just like that with people in Europe. As long as we feed them and dish out money to them they aren't going to work for it. That's just human nature and I don't blame them."

This statement has been labeled a sample of the Governor's branchhead statesmanship. The word "branchhead" is tossed around in a very abusive manner. The majority of us Alabamians don't mind at all being associated with such adjectives. Diplomacy, the level to which the country politician climbs when he gets above the people who elected him, has led us into two wars and a 260 billion dollar debt in a generation. A whole nation full of "branchhead statesmen" couldn't have done worse.

As for the Governor's line of thought, we are strictly on his side this time. For nine years Europe was capable of feeding herself and supporting the largest armies in history. Germany was able to raise food for home consumption, keep her armies well fed and still had enough manpower to run factories that turned out war materials at a rate second only to our own. She has several million ex-soldiers now who could settle down to raising a little food and she has additional millions of factory workers who were trained to turn out planes and tanks, but if they get hungry enough they can probably turn out pretty good gardens.

Perhaps Europeans do need some of the twenty-odd billion they are asking for under the Marshall Plan, and no doubt they would enjoy a free meal every day for a couple of years. However, in America we have to work to be able to eat and we have to work to be able to pay taxes. Perhaps if Europeans would do a little more work and do a little more toward supporting themselves they would have a little more respect, the U. S. could spend a little less money and reduce taxes, in which case the future would look better to us as well as to them.

Christmas Whiskey

President Truman and Charles Luckman have just become the daddies of several hangers. By their announcement that that distilleries would be closed in cooperation with the grain saving program, they sent many people down to the liquor stores to lay in a supply before it was all gone. State stores in Alabama last week reported sales up 50%. Part of this, they explain is due to the fact that people are buying ahead for the holiday season. Liquor, however has a habit of not sitting around in a convenient place for a very long period of time, and the level to which the country politician climbs when he gets above the people who elected him, has led us into two wars and a 260 billion dollar debt in a generation. A whole nation full of "branchhead statesmen" couldn't have done worse.

MRS. GUSSE HUTCHISON HOSTESS TO B.V.C.

Mrs. Gusse Hutchison was hostess to the B.V.C. of the Baptist W.M.S. Monday evening at her home on Smith Avenue.

As the circle members arrived, Miss Gusse presented each of them with an apron and invited them into the kitchen where a delicious barbecue dinner with all the trimmings was served buffet fashion. From the kitchen the ladies went into the dining room and were seated around a table that was overlaid with a handsome linen cloth and held for its central decoration a beautiful bouquet of red dahlias.

Following the social hour, Mrs. Melvin Hoover led the devotional, choosing for her Bible reading passages relating to the financing the Kingdom work. "Give of your Best to the Master" was sung.

GASOLINE TAX BREAKS RECORD

The six-cent per gallon gasoline tax reached a record peak this year when collections on the last two months' gas sales raised the year's total gas revenue receipts to $25,141,799, Philip J. Hamm, Revenue Commissioner, disclosed last week.

The September collections, which amounted to $3,261,419, brought the second highest total in the history of the gasoline tax and was second only to the all time high reached by the August collections of $3,275,437.

The total gasoline revenue this year exceeded last year's total of $21,759,972 by $3,381,826, and A. B. Tucker, chief of the gasoline tax division of the state Department of Revenue, said that each county will get approximately $16,000 of September's receipts. The 67 counties will receive in excess of $16,000, each, as their portion of the gasoline revenue received during the whole year.

Tucker estimated that the total cost of collecting the tax will amount to one-tenth of one per cent of the tax collected which will amount to approximately $25,000.

PRUNING

Fruit trees should be pruned as soon as they become dormant. Since pruning will take quite a bit of time, delaying it might interfere with other seasonal work on the farm.

Hunt Amphibious Monster On Day and Night Watch

SHANGHAI—Villagers and peasants around Fuding, across the Whangpoo river from Shanghai, have established a day and night watch for an amphibious monster which they believe is carrying off children. Descriptions of the alleged beast vary, some saying it is half-man, half-ape, others that it resembles a huge wild boar.

The neighborhood has no doubts about its existence, however, and has erected a bamboo watchtower which is manned constantly. Volunteers also patrol the creek banks.

The China Press said a 20-year-old woman was killed by a posse which threw her into a pond when she refused to confess to any knowledge of the monster.

Russians Grant Amnesty To Thousands of 'Nazis'
BERLIN—Admitting that some former active Nazis still were holding public offices in Soviet-occupied territory, the Russians granted a "political amnesty" to the thousands of "little Nazis" in their zone of Germany.

A proclamation to this effect was issued by Marshal Vasily D. Sokolovsky, Russian military governor.

It granted the right to vote and to hold office to all Germans in the Russian zone who had formerly been nominal members of the Nazi party and who "have not committed crimes against the peace and security of the peoples of Germany or other nations."

Thirteen Buffalo Become 5,200 Pounds of Good Meat
COLDWATER, MICH.—Thirteen buffalo that ran at large, trampling lawns and frightening Coldwater's citizens, were just 5,200 pounds of tasty meat ready for sale to bid.

Their brief bid for freedom from the buffalo ranch operated by Edwin Butters, four miles southwest of here, was brought to an abrupt halt by a posse headed by Sheriff William Butts and Police Chief Harry Hutchins.

The authorities first tried to capture the animals as they ran into the city, providing a free Wild West show, but finally had to shoot them.

STATE PERSONAL DEPART
Montgomery—State Personnel Director Charles W. Terry last week announced that all applications for state merit jobs must be in the personnel office here by October 24. Applications for these jobs must be obtained by writing the State Personnel Department, Montgomery, Ala.

Becoming Modesty

A GIRL from Texas was being prepared for a trip to New York by her mother. "Whether they had shopped and bought clothes for every possible contingency. New luggage was procured and finally the girl was ready to leave for the city. As she was about to kiss her mother farewell, the mother said:

"Now, dear, don't you mention to the folks in New York that you're from Texas. That would be like talking about money in front of poor people. We mustn't parade our advantages."

NO CHANCE TO REST

Not Quite Right
"May I have this check cashed, please?" asked the young woman of the paying teller.
"Of course, madam," the teller replied. "Just endorse it please."

"Must I endorse it?" she asked, apparently puzzled. "Oh, yes, Mrs. Smith, you know. My husband is out of the city and mailed the check to me."

Wet Road to Heaven
Along the outer reaches of the Big Sandy, Brother Scanlan was a Free Baptist preacher of force and good deeds. One spring, he held a revival meeting and gathered many converts to the fold. When the time for baptizing came the ice had gone out, so Brother Scanlan broke the ice and waded into the water followed by his first candidate. Unfortunately the latter was a man and when the good preacher ducked him the man slipped under the ice and floated away down the river. Undismayed, baptizer Scanlan turned to the crowd on the bank, lifted his head and cried, "One brother gone to glory. Hallelujah! Amen—Next!"

FAIR PLAY
The golf match to end all golf matches was played up in Heaven by St. Peter and St. Paul. St. Peter had the honor on the first tee and promptly made a hole in one. St. Paul, undaunted, repeated the performance. St. Peter marked the scores down dutifully on his card, then remarked, "What do you say, Paul? Let's cut out the miracles and get down to business."

Always Something
The old mountaineer was sound asleep on the porch. He awoke sleepily as his breakfast was shaking the daylight out of him. "Dinner is ready, paw," he announced.

The mountaineer finally opened his eyes. "What are yer talkin' about?" he drawled. "Didn't I just eat awhile ago?"

"Sure, Paw," nodded the boy. "But that was breakfast. This time it's dinner."

The weary father arose. "Dog gone," he grumbled. "If it ain't one thing, it's another!"

Getting Back
"Sure the list price of the dinner is two dollars," said the waiter blandly to the new car salesman. "But the flowers on the table bring it to $2.75."

An Exception
It had been one of the best finds in years and feeling had been fanned high all over the mountain region. Now, a jury was being selected to decide the winner's fate.

A bewildered prospective juror was asked, "Have you formed any opinion as to the guilt or innocence of this defendant?"

"I ain't, Sir."

"Do you object to capital punishment?"

"No sir-ee," was the prompt reply. "not in this case, I don't!"

NEW CHILD LABOR ACT PASSES

Montgomery—Gov. Folsom last week signed into law legislation raising the basic minimum working age in Alabama from 14 to 16 years.

The new law, approved in the closing days of the 1947 legislature, has been described by sponsors as the most advanced child labor legislation in 32 years. As approved by Gov. Folsom the statute prohibits employment of any gainful occupation under the age of 16 with these exceptions:

Agriculture and domestic work are exempt; children 14 and 15 years old may work outside of school hours and during vacation periods in a non-hazardous occupation, but not in manufacturing or mechanical industries; during school hours no child under 16 is permitted to work unless he has completed high school under terms of the new law, excluding of course those in agriculture and domestic service.

The law also put a ceiling of 40 hours per week on the length of time a child under 16 can work. The act was sponsored by the Department of Industrial Relations and a group of clubwomen throughout the state and was recommended to the Legislature by Gov. Folsom. Sen. Joseph Langan of Mobile introduced the measure.

TRY LADINO CLOVER
Ladino clover, the largest growing form of white clover, needs to be tried over the state by a number of farmers. J. C. Lowery, API extension agronomist, says growers should try it only on small areas of property prepared land. Better soils and better management are needed for Ladino than for white clover.

Have your husband cut a board to fit into your sewing table drawer. Hammer two-inch nails into it, and you have a handy thread rack.

Baked apples or stuffed popovers will keep their shape better if placed in a buttered muffin tin when baking.

Now that those long days of toil spent in the preparation of your crop have faded into the background and the season of ease and relaxation is here, the thoughtful farmer will turn his attention to preparing for those evenings made for relaxation. Sure you have that feeling of peace and pride, and why not? Pride in knowing your crops have been harvested. Pride in a bountiful harvest and peace of mind in knowing how well you have provided for your loved ones.

Now a good newspaper in your home can complete this beautiful picture. It's equally important to keep your mind fresh, alert and awake to the developments of your country, your state, your county . . . yes, even the happenings of your next door neighbor. Did you ever stop to think the only sure thing you can leave your children is knowledge, and what better instrument is there for this purpose than a good newspaper? The investment is small . . . the benefits great.

VIM AND VIGOR ARE IMPORTANT IN HOME FURNISHINGS.

Most people think of spice as something connected with cooking. Allice Peavy, API extension economist in home management, however, points out that you can add "spice" to a drab room the home.

Have you noticed how drab and colorless a room can be with little effect in it? Too, have you noticed that other rooms cluttered with too many fixtures or accessories, or the wrong kind of furnishings, are just as uninteresting?

To place the correct amount seasoning in any room, advises Miss Peavy, begin first by selecting a center of interest in the room. This may be a mantel. Most mantels, however, lack originality in that they are adorned with a clock and candlesticks.

We Keep Our Cards on the Table
We collect 2 % Sales Tax at JITNEY JUNGLE.
We are not in the least ashamed for you, the Customer, to know that we comply with the Sales Tax Law of our state, as well as every other law that we know of.
All of our many years of experience in the operation of a retail grocery store has proven to us that it is not only the Honest, but also the most satisfactory method of doing business to deal in a straight-forward way with the Customer and the City, State and Federal Governments.
No doubt you have noticed that the selling price of each item in our store is plainly marked on each article or label. It will always continue to be marked in this way when you make purchases with us you may check your Grocery Bill when you get home and see that you have gotten exactly what you paid for. The exact amount of Sales Tax that you paid will also be shown on the ticket.
If we elected to do so we could pretend that we do not charge you the 2 per cent Sales and you'd never know that you had paid it; neither would you know how much more than 2 per cent you had paid, but we hasten to say that we will never adopt that policy. That is not the way we were taught to operate and we are definitely not interested in changing our present policy.
Again we say that we are not apologizing for having to collect the Sales Tax. We are merely pointing out OUR clean, open and above-board method of collecting it and we believe that most of our customers do and will continue to appreciate our position in this matter.
At JITNEY JUNGLE we have nothing to hide. We invite our customers to Check and Double-Check — Anytime — Everywhere.

THE ELBA CLIPPER

Volume 51 ELBA, ALABAMA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1947 Number 21

Tigers Defeat Florala 7-6; Hartford Next

Tigers Rally In Second Half To Outclass Foe

Outplayed throughout the first quarter and scored on its first drive of the game, the Elba Tigers settled down and won a football game in a thrilling finish before a home crowd of 2,000 people here Thursday night. Florala scored early in the game largely on line plays, going over from the yard line for six of the six points. The attempt for the extra point failed, however.

Florala continued to outplay the Tigers until well into the second quarter but were not able to muster enough punch for a second score and led at the half by a 6-0 count.

The last half was won by Elba. The Tigers started their scoring drive from their own 35 just as the third quarter ended. The score came on a fourth down on the four-yard line when Morrow circled left end to score standing up. The play-off point came on a hand-off from McDowell to Farris who plowed straight through the middle for the extra point and the ball game.

With only six minutes left to play they kicked to Florala and held on the forty. After receiving a punt on their own 30 they moved the ball to the Florala 12 in six plays. The Florala line tightened and the scoring line was stopped when Elba was penalized for taking too much time.

Playing without McCollough, Jeter and Charles Whitman, three outstanding regulars, the Tigers played improved ball and completely outclassed the stubborn Florala team in the last half. Several newcomers were outstanding in the Elba line-up including Travis Whitman tackle, and Grimes, center. Ringdorph played his usual fine game and Farris, Elba's freshman halfback, turned in a stellar performance, both on offense and defense. Morrow made several beautiful runs including the one that scored the TD.
